Let's Start!

Can I tell you about my problems?

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe plans for the organization of events.

Ask your partner:

- Is it difficult to balance work and studies? Why?
- Who do you talk to when you have problems at work or with your studies

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about subjects to study.
- I can ask for and give permission.
- I can ask for and respond to advice.

Let's Explore!

Peter needs advice! Vanessa's a great sounding board!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hi Vanessa!
Vanessa: Hey Peter, how's it going?
Peter: Not very well. Can I tell you about my problems?
Vanessa: Sure, go ahead.
Peter: I'm having a hard time balancing my work with part-time studies.
Vanessa: That's a common problem.
Peter: I feel stressed. I'm taking HR and Accounting courses. They're not easy, like English, Spanish or Music Appreciation. Next term I have to take Statistics!
Vanessa: Oh, that's hard.
Peter: I don't get enough sleep, and I make more mistakes than I should.
Vanessa: Oh Peter, everyone expects mistakes from you.
Peter: What should I do?
Vanessa: You should try to maintain your daily routines. Don't skip your workouts at the gym. Take lots of short breaks. Just walk around the room to get the blood circulating.
Peter: Thanks, Vanessa! That's great advice. You're a great sounding board!
Vanessa: Anytime, my friend!

Let's Practice!

Peter asks Vanessa: What should I do? What advice does she give?

Instructions: Choose all the correct answers.

1. What advice does Vanessa give Peter?

- ☐ Eat more food.

Asking for and Giving Advice

There are many ways to ask for and to give advice.

Here are some expressions you can use to ask for and to give advice.

Asking for Advice	Giving Advice
What do you suggest?	It's good to ...
How do you suggest I ... ?	I strongly advise ...
Do you have any advice for ... ?	Why don't you ... ?
What should I do?	You should try to ...

Examples:

• Peter: What should I do?

Vanessa: You should try to maintain as many routines as you can.

Asking for Permission

When you ask for permission, it is important to be polite.

You often use a modal like can, may, could to ask for permission.

You can also ask a Yes or No question like "Is it OK if ... " or "Would you mind if ... "

Here are some ways to ask for and give permission.

Asking for Permission	Giving Permission
Can I tell you about my problems?	Sure, go ahead.
Would you mind if I asked a question?	Not at all. I'd be happy to help.
Can I take that course next term?	Yes, you can.
Could I use your textbook this evening?	OK, no problem.
