

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

This online course is called ... Introduction to Basket Weaving!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about subjects and ways to study.
- I can ask for and respond to advice.
- I can compare two things.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to take courses online?
Why or why not?
- Which courses do you take online?
- How difficult are online courses?

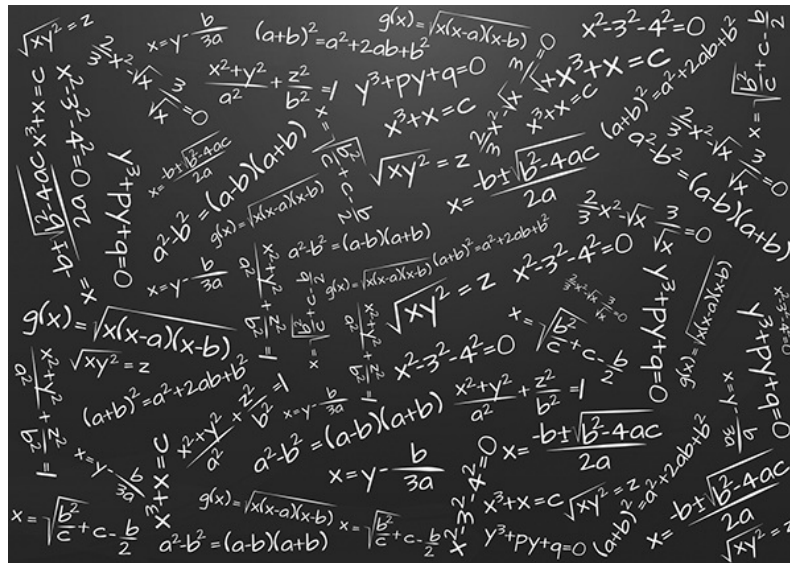

Let's Explore!

Peter is taking an accounting class called Introduction to Accounting. It's not called Introduction to Basket Weaving*!

* When you start a new program of study, many courses are called "Introduction to ... "

 You can call a very easy course "Introduction to Basket Weaving" as a joke.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Instructor: Good morning, class. Are there any questions about the course before we begin?

Student 1: How do you suggest we contact you?

Instructor: The best way to contact me is by e-mail. The address is included in the syllabus.

Student 1: Do you have any advice for studying online?

Instructor: I strongly advise all students to use the student forum for online discussions. It is faster and more efficient to ask questions online and get immediate answers from your classmates. It also might be a good idea to review the online resources. They are listed under the heading Introduction to Accounting. It will make your experience more enjoyable.

Peter: Excuse me? I'd like to know when we take a coffee break. I think that would make my experience more enjoyable.

Let's Practice!

The instructor says the students should use online resources and onlinediscussions. Do you agree?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

The best way to contact me	the online resources.
The e-mail address is included	is by e-mail.
Do you have any advice	Introduction to Accounting.
I advise students to use the forum	for online discussions.
It also might be a good idea to review	for studying online?
They are listed under the heading	in the syllabus.

Let's Practice!

Let's compare ways to learn.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use the comparative or superlative form of the word that is underlined.

1. A good way to contact me is by telephone. A _____ way to contact me is by video chat. The _____ way to contact me is by e-mail.
2. It is fast to ask questions in class, but it is _____ to ask questions online.
3. It is efficient to learn by using a textbook, but it is _____ to learn using online resources.
4. The course is enjoyable, but it will be _____ if you review the syllabus topics online.

Extension Activity

Describe the syllabus of a course.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of an original name of a course you would like to take.
- Write a 1 sentence introduction to the course. You can start with "In this course, you will learn ..."
- List the things you will learn in the course.
- Go online for more ideas. You can search for real courses using key words.
- Read your course syllabus to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I choose a name for my course.

☐
☐

I write an introduction sentence.

☐
☐

I describe the syllabus.

☐
☐

I present my syllabus to a partner.

☐
☐

Target Words

- syllabus (noun): a document that lists topics you will study in a course
Example: The best way to contact me is by using the e-mail provided in the syllabus.
- classmate (noun): a person who is taking the same course as you e.g. It is faster to ask questions online and get immediate answers from your classmates.
- introduction (noun): beginning of a topic
e.g. It might be a good idea to review the resources under the heading Introduction to Accounting.
- forum (noun): an area of a website for discussion on a topic e.g. I advise all students to use the student forum for online discussions.
- instructor (noun): the teacher of a course (usually college-level)
e.g. The best way to contact the instructor is by e-mail.

Learning Points

Asking for and Giving Advice

Here are some expressions you can use to ask for and to give advice.

Asking for Advice	Giving Advice
What do you suggest?	The best way ...
How do you suggest I ... ?	I strongly advise ...
Do you have any advice for ... ?	Why don't you ... ?
What should I do?	It would be a good idea to ...

Examples:

- Do you have any advice for studying online?
- I strongly advise all students to use the student forum for online discussions.
- You should ask questions for clarification.

Learning Points

Comparatives and Superlatives

You use a comparative to compare somebody or something to one other person or thing.

You can use than after comparatives.

You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

You add the in front of the superlative form.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the comparative and superlative:

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Form
fast	faster (than)	the fastest	Most adjectives: +-er, +-est
late	later (than)	the latest	Adjectives ending in -e: +-r, +-st
happy	happier (than)	the happiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: +-ier, +-iest
efficient	more efficient (than)	the most efficient	3+-syllable adjectives: more + adjective+ than most + adjective
good bad	better (than) worse (than)	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

