

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's the worst course ever!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about subjects to study.
- I can ask for and give permission.
- I can compare two things.

Ask your partner:

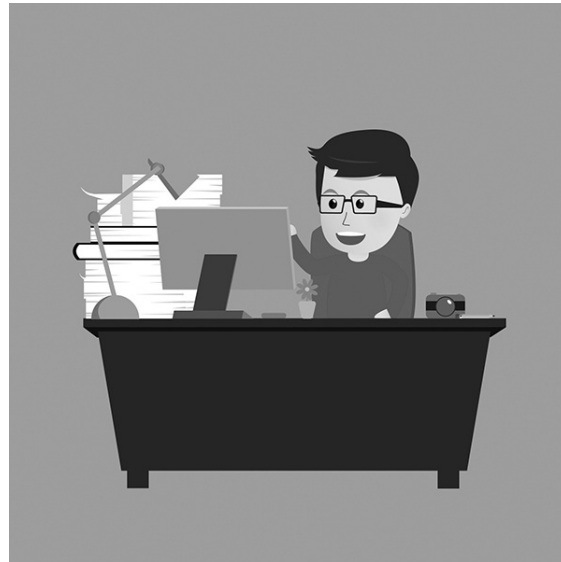

- What was the best course you took?
Why?
- What was the worst course you took?
Why?

Let's Explore!

Peter and Wendy talk about their course. Do they like it?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Introduction to Accounting is a bad course.
Wendy: It's the worst course ever! Financial records are so boring! The other courses in the program are more interesting. I think the most useful course is Digital Reputation Management.
Peter: Can I take that course next term?
Wendy: Sure. It's about ways companies can communicate more effectively during a crisis.
Peter: That sounds like a Public Relations course.
Wendy: You're right, but that's a very broad topic. It includes everything related to customer experience. I'm also taking Marketing Research right now.
Peter: What's that course about?
Wendy: It's about how to understand and use consumer opinion. Effective Negotiation is another good course. It's about how to speak clearly and confidently. Here's the course syllabus.
Peter: Can I see that?
Wendy: Of course.
Peter: I need to take that course. I couldn't even negotiate a coffee break!

Let's Practice!

What is the course about?

Instructions: Read text. Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

- _____ to Accounting is about how to keep financial records. (Negotiation / Introduction)
- Digital _____ Management is about how companies communicate during a crisis. (Relation / Reputation)
- Public _____ includes everything related to customer experience. (Relations / Research)
- Effective _____ is about how to speak clearly and confidently. (Negotiation / Communication)
- Marketing _____ is about understanding consumer opinion. (Research / Reputation)

Let's Practice!

This is the worst course ever!

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

interesting / the best / less / the least / bad / worse / the most / more /
the worst / useful

Peter thinks that Introduction to Accounting is a _____ course. Wendy thinks it's _____ course. She thinks the other courses are _____
_____. She thinks _____ course is Digital Reputation Management.

Extension Activity

Make up a list of 6 crazy courses and then compare them.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of the names of 6 crazy courses.
- Choose 3 courses that are good.
- Write sentences comparing the good courses. Use the words good, better, best. Explain why.
- Choose 3 courses that are bad.
- Write sentences comparing the bad courses. Use the words bad, worse, worst. Explain why.
- Read your sentences to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I invent 6 crazy courses.

☐ ☐

I compare the good courses.

☐ ☐

I compare the bad courses.

☐ ☐

I read my sentences to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- financial records (noun): the list of expenses and revenues of a business
e.g. Introduction to Accounting is about how to keep financial records.
- reputation (noun): the high or low opinion people have about something e.g. Digital Reputation Management is a good course.
- useful (adjective): describes something that is practical and helpful
e.g. I think the most useful course is Effective Negotiation.
- public relations (noun): everything related to how customers communicate with a company
e.g. Public Relations is a very broad topic.
- effective (adjective): describes something that works well e.g. The course is about ways companies can be more effective.
- customer (noun): a person who buys a product or service
e.g. Public Relations includes everything related to customer experience.

Learning Points

Asking for Permission

When you ask for permission, it is important to be polite.

You often use a modal like can, may, could to ask for permission.

You can also ask a Yes or No question like "Is it OK if ... " or "Would you mind if ... "

Here are some ways to ask for and give permission.

Asking for Permission	Giving Permission
Can I see that?	Of course!
Would you mind if I changed courses?	That's not a problem.
Can I take that course next term?	Sure.
Could I use your textbook this evening?	OK, no problem.

Learning Points

Comparatives and Superlatives

You use a comparative to compare somebody or something to one other person or thing.

You use than after comparatives.

You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

You add the in front of the superlative form.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the comparative and superlative:

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Form
fast	faster (than)	the fastest	Most adjectives: +-er, +-est
late	later (than)	the latest	Adjectives ending in -e: +-r, +-st
happy	happier (than)	the happiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: +-ier, +-iest
useful	more useful (than) less useful (than)	the most useful the least useful	2+-syllable adjectives: more/less + adjective + than the most/least + adjective
good bad	better (than) worse (than)	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

